

Sara's New Book

Read the passage below and answer the questions on the next page.

Sara loves to read books. Her favorite place to read is the big, cozy chair in the living room. Today, she has a new book about space. She opens the book and starts to read about planets and stars.

“I wish I could visit the stars,” she says to her cat, Whiskers. Whiskers meows and jumps onto her lap.

Sara reads about the sun, the moon, and the Earth. She learns that the Earth goes around the sun. She sees pictures of astronauts and space shuttles.

When she finishes the book, Sara looks out the window at the night sky. She sees the twinkling stars and the bright moon.

“One day, I will be an astronaut,” she tells Whiskers. Whiskers purrs as if he agrees.

1) Where does Sara like to read her books?

2) What is the topic of Sara's new book?

3) What does Sara wish as she reads the book?

4) Name two things Sara learns about from her book.

5) What does Sara want to be one day?
