

NAME:

DATE:

Affect Vs Effect

Choose 'affect' or 'effect' to complete the sentence.

1. How will the new policy (affect/effect) our company's sales?
2. The side (affects/effects) of the medication include drowsiness and dizziness.
3. She was concerned that the scandal might negatively (affect/effect) her reputation.
4. The greenhouse (affect/effect) refers to the way certain gases in the earth's atmosphere trap heat.
5. Will the sudden change in temperature (affect/effect) the plants in our garden?
6. The sudden cut in budget had an immediate (affect/effect) on our project.
7. The economic downturn could seriously (affect/effect) the profitability of our business.
8. The visual (affects/effects) in the movie were truly impressive.
9. Despite the constant noise around, it didn't seem to (affect/effect) her concentration.
10. Due to its profound (affect/effect), the speech moved many in the audience.

NAME:

DATE:

ANSWERS

1. How will the new policy (affect/effect) our company's sales?
2. The side (affects/effects) of the medication include drowsiness and dizziness.
3. She was concerned that the scandal might negatively (affect/effect) her reputation.
4. The greenhouse (affect/effect) refers to the way certain gases in the earth's atmosphere trap heat.
5. Will the sudden change in temperature (affect/effect) the plants in our garden?
6. The sudden cut in budget had an immediate (affect/effect) on our project.
7. The economic downturn could seriously (affect/effect) the profitability of our business.
8. The visual (affects/effects) in the movie were truly impressive.
9. Despite the constant noise around, it didn't seem to (affect/effect) her concentration.
10. Due to its profound (affect/effect), the speech moved many in the audience.