Lucy was excited and a little nervous. Today was the day of her first soccer game. She put on her uniform, laced up her cleats, and tied her hair back. Her heart was racing as she stepped onto the field. The whistle blew and the game began.

Lucy tried to remember all the things she learned at practice. She ran fast, kept her eye on the ball, and passed to her teammates. In the middle of the game, Lucy saw her chance. She kicked the ball with all her might and watched as it sailed into the goal. Lucy had scored her first goal!

But the game wasn't over yet. There was a mix-up and the other team scored a goal. The score was tied. Lucy felt a knot in her stomach. She didn't want to let her team down.
