Cinco de Mayo is a holiday celebrated on May 5th every year. The name "Cinco de Mayo" means "the fifth of May" in Spanish. It originated in Mexico and is now celebrated in many places around the world. The holiday commemorates the Mexican army's victory over the French at the Battle of Puebla in 1862.

Cinco de Mayo is celebrated in different ways. In Mexico, people may attend parades, listen to music, and enjoy traditional foods such as tacos and guacamole.

In the United States, many people celebrate with Mexican-themed parties, decorations, and food. Some people also participate in cultural events that showcase Mexican music, dance, and art.

Cinco de Mayo is an important holiday for many people because it celebrates Mexican culture and history. It is also an opportunity for people to come together and enjoy each other's company.
